

Henry Allen & Son
FURNISHING
UNDERTAKERS
88 Main St.
Lady Assistant when Requested

This Is Gas Heater Weather

With the sudden drop in the temperature, the absence of steam and other heating, has brought discomfort to many.

A GAS HEATER
or
GAS STEAM RADIATOR
will give you immediate comfort in the Home or Office.
Full, new stock on hand.

The City of Norwich
Gas and Electrical Dept.
321 Main St., Alice Building

DIAMONDS
WATCH BRACELETS,
PENDANTS,
BROOCHES,
BRACELETS RINGS
of every description, newest models in every finish

John & Geo. H. Bliss

DR. C. R. CHAMBERLAIN
Dental Surgeon
McGregory Building, Norwich, Conn.

DRS. L. F. and A. J. LAPIERRE
287 Main St.
PRACTICE LIMITED TO
Hours 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat

VALENTINES
Now On Sale
LEAP YEAR
Buy Early

THE CRANSTON CO.
JOSEPH BRADFORD,
BOOK BINDER
Blank Books Made and Ruled to Order.
108 BROADWAY

MAHONEY BROS.,
FALLS AVENUE
Hack, Livery and Boarding
Stable

Trommer's
Evergreen Beer
REAL GERMAN LAGER
is on draught at
H. JACKEL & CO.

MAHONEY BROS.,
FALLS AVENUE
Hack, Livery and Boarding
Stable

We guarantee our service to be the best at the most reasonable prices.

R. R. AGNEW, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon
Room 214 Thayer Building
Norwich, Conn. Greenville office:
Office Hours: 12-2;
2-4 p. m.; 7-8 except Wednesday
7-8 Wednesday and Saturday evenings and by Saturday appointment

THE DEL-HOFF
Rates 75 cents per day and up.
HAYES BROTHERS.
Telephone 1227. 25-28 Broadway

Most Cigars are Good—
THESE ARE BETTER
TOM'S 1-2-3 CIGAR
GOOD FELLOW 10c CIGAR

Try them and see.
THOS. M. SHEA, Prop. Franklin St.
Next to Palace Cafe

F. C. GEER, Piano Tuner
122 Prospect Street, Norwich, Conn.
Phone 511

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUS-
INESS before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of THE BULLETIN.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Friday, Jan. 23, 1915.

THE WEATHER.

Conditions.

The two weather charts of Thursday presented a combination of extreme conditions such as never before occurred in the history of the weather bureau. At the morning observation the great high pressure area still covered the eastern states and the western Atlantic ocean with a low pressure area of fair proportions central over eastern Iowa. As a result there was more abnormal temperatures through the central, eastern and the southern states, and the January records were exceeded in places. At the same time both the northwestern high pressure area and cold wave had increased in intensity and had extended southward west of the Mississippi river.

At Havre, Mont., the temperature of Thursday's low, 20 degrees below zero, was the lowest recorded during the day was 80 degrees at Tampa, Fla. At the same time a storm of great intensity moved in from the Pacific coast by way of central California.

The eastward movement of the Pacific disturbance will prevent any settled weather over the central and east portions of the country for several days and over the districts east of the Mississippi river rains and snows will be general, with rapidly falling temperatures and a storm of great intensity moving in from the Pacific coast by way of central California.

Forecast.

East New York: Rain Friday, probably turning to snow, and colder north and west portions; Saturday much colder and probably fair.

Southern New England: Rain Friday or Friday night; Saturday colder and probably fair.

Observations in Norwich.

The following records, reported from Sevin, pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Thursday:

Ther. Bar.

7 a. m. 49 29.40
12 m. 48 29.42
4 p. m. 45 29.45
Highest 49, lowest 45.

Comparisons.

Predictions for Thursday: Cloudy, with rain; Friday: Fair; Saturday: Partly cloudy.

Notes.

Miss Agnes Nelson of Prospect street entertained a number of her friends Thursday evening. Games were played and refreshments were served by the hostess.

The foundation of the house being erected at Potter Manor for Dr. C. R. Chamberlain is nearing the stage of completion. The brickwork will all be completed in a short while.

Owing to the slippery and muddy condition of Central avenue, an out of town motorist had to push his machine through the street by hand power. The road is in such a bad condition that the rider for his own safety was compelled to abandon riding.

Pleasant Trip to Panama.

Steamer Captain for Colon, on which Charles H. Brown of Norwich is a passenger, sailed from New York at 8 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mr. Brown has as his guest on the trip to the isthmus Dudley C. Perkins, of Gales Ferry. They expect to be gone over three weeks. They will be met at Colon by Alfred E. Rogers.

Head Stuffed From Catarrh or a Cold

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils
Opens Air Passages Right Up.

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, sneezing, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, soothing balm to your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

GAGER

Funeral Director
and Embalmer

Prompt service day or night

Tel. 642-2. Lady Assistant.

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUS-
INESS before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of THE BULLETIN.

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUS-
INESS before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of THE BULLETIN.

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUS-
INESS before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of THE BULLETIN.

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUS-
INESS before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of THE BULLETIN.

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUS-
INESS before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of THE BULLETIN.

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUS-
INESS before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of THE BULLETIN.

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUS-
INESS before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of THE BULLETIN.

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUS-
INESS before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of THE BULLETIN.

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUS-
INESS before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of THE BULLETIN.

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUS-
INESS before the public, there is no
medium better than through the advertising columns of THE BULLETIN.

LEARNED WILL IS CONTESTED

Norwich, Friday, Jan. 23, 1915.

Appeal From Probate Taken by Brother and Sisters of the Former New London Banker—Grotton Woman Asks for Divorce—Foreclosure Suit on Grotton Land.

An appeal from the probate of the will of Walter Learned, late of New London, deceased, formerly treasurer of the Savings Bank of New London, has been taken by Horace C. Learned, Alice Learned Bunker and Emily D. Learned, heirs at law of the deceased. The papers bringing the appeal were filed in the probate court on Thursday.

The learned estate, it has been estimated, will amount to between $125,000 and $150,000. Those bringing the appeal are the brother and sisters who are beneficiaries under the will as follows: Horace C. Learned, $3,500; Emily D. Learned, $5,000; and Alice Learned Bunker, $10,000.

Alfred C. Learned of New London and Charles D. White of Grotton are the executors of the will. The case was set for probate in the New London court on January 11, 1915.

Besides notice upon the two executors, it is directed that notice of the pendency of the appeal be served upon the following: Robert R. Congdon, Beattie M. Ockford and Ruth T. Bunker, all of New London; the public library of New London; Ellen Hobart Beck with of Genesee, N. Y.; Walter Learned Beckwith of Cambridge, Mass.; and Thomas Kingsley Beckwith of Genesee.

THE SUPERIOR COURT DOCKET

Before Adjourning Criminal Term Without Day—Long List of Cases.

In the superior court here on Thursday morning State Attorney Hull went through the entire docket, disposing of the cases which had not previously been disposed of either by entering nolle prosequere or continuances. Then this morning the superior court adjourned without day.

The case of Barnett Levy, charged with theft, was continued.

The case against Fanny Green has expired and the case went off.

The case of Attorney Ralph H. Denison of Grotton, charged with embezzlement, was continued. State Attorney Hull stating that the wife of the accused and the accused, John C. Geary was ill and unable to be in court.

The case against Calogero Chappone, charged with theft of cattle, was continued.

Bronstein's Probation Continued.

State Attorney Hull reported that the term of probation of Abraham Bronstein expired in April, but he wished it extended until the next session of the court.

The probation in the case against Edwin Jones has expired and the case went off.

The case against William Noonan, charged with indecent assault, was continued.

The case against Mary Perone was continued, and she will remain in the custody of the probation officer.

The case against Asa Walden, who is on probation, was continued.

Attorney's Illness Caused Postponement.

The cases against William Lubchansky, Nathan Pomerantz and Benjamin Pomerantz were continued. State Attorney Hull stated that the case against the Pomerantz family was continued because of the illness of the attorney.

The case against Harry D. Bryden, charged with falsifying accounts, was continued.

The probation term in the case of Harry D. Bryden has expired and his case went off.

The case against George W. Young, charged with theft, was continued.

The case against William Young, who has been on probation, went off.

The case against Raymond Kilgus, charged with theft, was continued.

The case against James Beatty, who has been on probation, went off.

The case against Leo Wolfe, which had been continued until further order of court, was nolle.

The case against Joseph Fogelson of New York, charged with indecent assault, was continued.

Nolle in Verdicting's Case.

The state attorney recommended a nolle in the case against Charles E. Yerrington, charged with attempting to influence a juror. He said that the evidence was weak, there being only one other witness, whose testimony would not be strong. The nolle was entered.

The case against Garofalo Bruno, charged with embezzlement of money and goods from a store at the navy yard, was nolle.

Colontonio Trial Next Term.

The case against Rocco Colontonio of New London, charged with manslaughter in shooting and killing Antonio D'Amico, was continued. Colontonio was charged with first degree murder, but a grand jury failed to find a true bill against him. State Attorney Hull stated he would try the man next term on the charge of manslaughter.

The case against Earl May and Thomas Brown, which was partially tried on the charge of breaking and entering a house, was continued because of the illness of a juror, was continued.

The case against Owen J. Frabo, charged with assault and battery, was continued.

The case of John Higgins, charged with theft, was continued.

The case against George W. Young, charged with theft, was continued.

There will be a short calendar session of the superior court in New London Friday morning for disposal of motions and other business.

Assignment of cases for the February session, which opens there through March, Judge Milton A. Shumway will preside.

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID SICKNESS

Humors in the blood cause internal derangement that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions, and are responsible for the readiness with which many people contract disease.

For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been most successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. Get Hood's. No other medicine acts like it.

Who Can Pile Split?

Who is the man that by seeing from his country can also see from himself—Hood's.

NORWICH BULLETIN, FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1915

Norwich, Friday, Jan. 23, 1915.

PAROLED MAN IN WATERBURY POLICE COURT.

Had Been Released from Inebriate Farm on Promise of Good Behavior.

"Or again, on again, gone again." It was the cry of the police court of Waterbury, Conn., today, when the first man from Waterbury, says the Waterbury police, was sent to the state farm for inebriates at Norwich, and the first man from the city to be paroled from that institution was sent back to the city.

James was arrested Monday, and was placed under the care of Clerk of the City Court, Edmund Hummel, to whom he was to report each week in person. James was also to refrain from using intoxicants and write a letter to the superintendent at the farm once every week.

James never had time to report to Clerk Hummel and the superintendent will never receive any character sheet from James.

James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court. The officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

PAROLED MAN IN WATERBURY POLICE COURT.

Norwich, Friday, Jan. 23, 1915.

Had Been Released from Inebriate Farm on Promise of Good Behavior.

"Or again, on again, gone again." It was the cry of the police court of Waterbury, Conn., today, when the first man from Waterbury, says the Waterbury police, was sent to the state farm for inebriates at Norwich, and the first man from the city to be paroled from that institution was sent back to the city.

James was arrested Monday, and was placed under the care of Clerk of the City Court, Edmund Hummel, to whom he was to report each week in person. James was also to refrain from using intoxicants and write a letter to the superintendent at the farm once every week.

James never had time to report to Clerk Hummel and the superintendent will never receive any character sheet from James.

James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court. The officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.

The court informed James, when continuing the case to allow the other side to be heard, that if James did not appear in court this morning, he would be charged with intoxication and being a common drunkard. James paid not only to both charges, although the officer who arrested him asserted that James was very, very drunk when he was brought into the city court.